Frequently Asked Questions

What is Travel With DCT?

Travel With DCT is a travel service that helps you plan, book, and manage your journeys. We assist with flights, trains, buses, cruises, hotels, holiday packages, visa assistance, and other travel requirements.

What travel services do you offer?

We provide domestic and international flights, interstate bus bookings, train bookings, cruise bookings, hotel bookings, domestic and international holiday packages, visa assistance, passport-related assistance, and travel support.

Can you create a customized holiday package?

Yes. We can help create a trip based on your destination, travel dates, number of travellers, preferences, and budget.

Do you book international flights?

Yes. We assist with both domestic and international flight bookings and can help you compare suitable options based on your requirements.

Do you offer cruise bookings?

Yes. Travel With DCT also assists with cruise holidays, including cruise options from leading cruise lines and destinations.

Can you arrange flights, hotels and transfers together?

Yes. Depending on your destination and requirements, we can help coordinate multiple travel services into one convenient travel plan.

Do you provide visa services?

Yes. We provide visa assistance and guidance for eligible destinations. Requirements and approval are subject to the respective embassy, consulate, or immigration authority.

Can you help with passport applications?

Yes. We assist customers with passport application-related services and appointment bookings.

How do I request a booking or quotation?

You can contact us through our website or email us with your travel requirements. Our team will review your request and provide suitable options and pricing.

Can I request a better fare if I find a cheaper price elsewhere?

You can share the fare or quotation you have found with us. We can review the details and check whether a better available option can be offered.

Do you charge a fee for travel enquiries?

Certain services or detailed travel assistance may carry a service or enquiry fee. Any applicable fee will be communicated before proceeding.

Can you help with last-minute bookings?

We can check available options for last-minute travel, subject to availability, operator rules, hotel availability, and applicable fares.

Can I make changes or cancel my booking?

Changes and cancellations depend on the airline, bus operator, railway, cruise line, hotel, package provider, or other supplier's terms. Applicable charges will be communicated where possible.

Are the prices shown on the website final?

Travel prices and availability can change until a booking is confirmed and payment is completed. The final price will be confirmed before booking.

Do you provide travel support after booking?

Yes. We aim to assist our customers with their travel requirements and provide support throughout the booking process.

Do you only serve customers in Goa?

No. Although Travel With DCT is based in Goa, we assist travellers with domestic and international travel requirements.
